George Washington Loses to Columbia in Two-Mile Relay.

Our two-mile relay team made its initial appearance of the indoor season at Baltimore Saturday night, and was defeated by the crack Columbia outfit, acknowledged to be the strongest team in the north at this distance. The defeat was far from a disgraceful one and had our boys had time to get into the trim that the New Yorkers evidently were in, it would have been a doubtful battle. As the race was arranged more in the nature of a try-out than anything else, all hands were satisfied and now will get down to sure enough work. On the 26th of this month a team will be sent to Richmond, where U. of Va. will be run and will be defeated. Now it's up to the students to come out and get a couple of strong relay teams. We've got the nucleus. A little filling out is all that's necessary.

In addition to the relay race on Saturday night, Sterrett got second in the pole vault, losing on a handicap. Steve Lorando on top of the relay, ran the 880 collegiate and landed within the money for a "bronze bauble." The relay team ran as follows: Calder, Gunning, Fleming and Lorando.

We have the hall under Chase's theatre from 5 to 7 p. m. daily. Make a point of getting out immediately and getting into shape for the 26th.

Admitted to the Bar.

Four more members of the Senior law class stood the District Bar examination a short while ago and passed successfully; they are L. W. Manning, P. R. Hallam, W. P. Jones, and E. M. Weeks. Five of this class have tried the Bar examination and all have passed, the other being Nathan Gammon.

Class Presidents Will Be Entertained.

Mrs. C. H. Ackert, who is deeply interested in the success of the Students' Ball, will entertain the officers of all the classes of the University at her home Monday night, January 21st.

The Students' Ball.

At a recent meeting of the Committee on Arrangements of the Students' Ball at the home of Mrs. Ackert, it was decided to again have a young ladies' reception committee as last year, since it was such a success then. Mrs. Charles E. Munroe and Sanford A. Taylor will have charge of this committee, and will be assisted by their daughters and Mrs. Thomas H. Anderson, Misses Anderson, Needham, and Grimsley, and Mrs. C. E. Grimsley.

A number of young ladies of the various schools in the city have already expressed their intention of coming, and if any of the students wish to bring their friends from these schools, free tickets will be furnished the chaperones.

If there is a Senior who has not been to one of these balls in former years he should not miss this opportunity, for not only should he go to at least one while in the University, but this promises to surpass all others in successful arrangements and attendance.

Needham Debating Society.

The regular meeting of the Needham Society which was held last Friday was, to the surprise of many, called to order on time. President Kennedy, who, be it known, strives to emulate a sort of Cannon-Roosevelt combination, with special emphasis on the "big stick," was in the chair.

The question which was under discussion was, whether the Japs should be excluded from this country of ours, on the same terms as the Chinks are now excluded. This being a question of timely interest brought forth a good discussion, and, also, a good attendance.

Mr. Thomson, of the negative, waxed eloquent—that is he made quite a noise, and on this account probably the judges gave him first honors, and, also, handed down a decision in favor of the negative.

Mr. Ambrose, always strong on rebuttal, received second honors.

Among the residue of speakers, Mr. Rowley gave voice to Biblical sentiments; Mr. Rutherford labored hard to show that Japan was superior to the U. S. in many things, but met the usual fate, on the rebuttal by Mr. Christensen, Mr. Hall led off for his side very ably.

Apropos of the decision for the negative, it is now a very safe bet to wager on the negative side to win, on past performances. Next meeting will be held January 18th.

Senior Dance.

Monday evening, January 7th, the Senior Class of Columbian College and the Washington College of Engineering closed the season of class functions with its annual dance. The library was used for dancing and West Hall was set apart for the refreshment of the body by means of the good things furnished to their guests by the Seniors and for the refreshments of the soul by social intercourse during the intermissions. Dean Wilbur and Mrs. Hough were the guests of the Seniors during the evening. The dance was regarded by all as a fitting climax to the season of class dances. The officers of the Senior Class are, President, Clarence P. Wilson; Vice-President, Miss Frances G. Bethune; Secretary, Miss Julia McMillan; Treasurer, Mr. J. F. Brandenburg. The committee which had the dance in charge consisted of the following: Chairman, Mr. Brandenburg, Misses Scott and McMillan, and Mr. Mechlin.

Track and Basket Ball Fund.

The fund for the hall is still $30.00 short. $25.00 have come from the alumni, and $5.00 from 1500 students!!! A call has been sent to the fraternities now, each one being assessed $2.50 which will net the needed $30.00 if everybody comes up.

The debating team of Trinity College defeated the representatives of Vanderbilt University in a joint debate at Durham on December 19th. The query was: Resolved, That private ownership of plants for lighting and street railway transportation is the policy best suited to American cities. Trinity had the affirmative.

Assistants Elected.

At a meeting of THE HATCHET Board last week Mr. E. P. Gates, '08, College, was elected Assistant Editor and Mr. F. C. Allis, '07, College, Assistant Manager for the rest of the year. Mr. Gates was chosen over other applicants by reason of his efficient and reliable work as college editor since he has been on the staff. Hereafter he will assist the Editor-in-Chief in the general conduct of the paper, as well as aid the college editor who will soon be appointed to fill the place left vacant. While none of the applicants for Assistant Manager had been active in the interest of the paper, Mr. Allis was chosen on account of his business experience in other lines of work.

It is distinctly stated that this is no assurance that these men will succeed the Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager at the election in May. It means that at the time of their election they were ahead of other applicants and if they maintain their lead, will succeed at the election in May. But if, in the meantime, others enter into the work and show themselves more capable than these two, they may be elected over their heads at that time.

Nothing could be more desirable than a keen competition for the rest of the year.

University Congress.

There was an air of expectancy in the legislative hall of the University Congress last Saturday night, for it had gone forth that weighty matters were at stake. Those who attended found this to be true. The question of repealing the contract labor clause in the Immigration Act was thoroughly discussed by the "gentlemen of the House."

The bill was introduced by Mr. Hendry, of Maryland, who set forth the crying need for labor throughout the country. Mr. Rowe of New Jersey led the opposition and showed that the workingmen of this country were solidly against the importation of contract labor; and that it would but increase the already too large and undesirable immigration.

Mr. Williams of Maryland and Mr. Barrett of the District supported the measure with some spirit. All the rest of the members present expressed their views to some extent.

Mr. Fravel occupied the Speaker's chair, and put the bill on its final passage, with the result that it passed with one vote to spare.

Next Saturday evening, the timely question as to the right of the states to have exclusive control of their school system, regardless of treaty, will be argued. This will give the constitutional "lights" a chance. The leaders of the opposition would like the students of the law school to help them.

The Speakers' Club.

The preliminary try out for the debate against George Washington University was held at the Law School on Monday night. Twelve candidates were in the field, of whom eight were to be chosen, and for two hours and a half the audience was regaled with every form of oratorical persuasion known to mortal man, calm, cool argument, bold assertion, pathetic appeals and impassioned exhortations. Dean Rogers, Professor Miller and Dr. Cox were assigned to the duty of judging the contest and, after due consideration selected John De Ellis, E. W. Pflueger, A. M. Schulman, Ralph Cummins, Schuler McCormick, Robert Marx, E. S. Hathaway and H. W. Humble.

It so happened that the speakers were equally divided between the two sides and it was very gratifying to see that the affirmative shewed greater strength than in the previous discussions.

The final trial will take place on Thursday, January 17th, when the contestants will be divided into two definite sides, Pflueger, Schulman, Cummins and Hathaway supporting the affirmative and McCormick, Marx, Humble and Ellis the negative.

Word comes from Washington that their team has already been selected and will consist of C. L. Allen, Law '08, Mr. Gates, College '08, Mr. Agnew, Law '07, and Mr. Schreiber, College '10, Alternate. Mr. Gates has represented the University twice, but Mr. Allen and Mr. Agnew have never taken part in an intercollegiate debate.

President Pflueger, of the Speakers' Club, named the following members as a committee to make arrangements for the banquet to be given in honor of the George Washington team: Messrs. Schulman, Wolf, Kusworm, McCormack and Bowen.—From University of Cincinnati News.

Y. M. C. A.

The attention of all members of the George Washington Y. M. C. A. is called to the approaching election of officers for the year 1907. The nominating committee, consisting of Messrs. Powers, Gates and Magruder, has reported and a copy of their report will be sent to each member. All ballots must be in the hands of the President by Jan. 20.

The Y. M. C. A. regular weekly chapel was inaugurated last Friday morning at 9.10 in West Hall. Dean Wilbur conducted the services and delivered an interesting talk. All the men of the University are cordially invited to help support these meetings.

The second regular Tuesday meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Bible study club was held Tuesday, Jan. 15, in West Hall. Mr. Peak has consented to preside at these meetings and there has been some very interesting discussion on live topics.

Enosinian Debating Society.

The next regular meeting of the Enosinian Society will be held Friday, January 18th, in Room 26. The question to be debated will be, Resolved, That the United States should subsidize the merchant marine. The affirmative will be upheld by Miss Hamden and Mr. Schreiber, the negative by Miss Harrington and Mr. Thompson. A full attendance of all members is requested as the Society will take up the consideration of the proposed constitutional amendments.

We always laugh at teacher's jokes
No matter what they be;
Not because they're funny jokes,
But because it's policy.

College News.

The Carnegie pension fund for aged college professors has been increased $5,000,000, making it $15,000,000, and the trustees announce that widows of deceased pensioners will receive half the annual amounts paid to their husbands.

Wofford College, at Spartanburg, S. C., where fraternities have been ordered by the faculty to cease initiating, now has a student-body numbering 450.

Dr. Richard Burton, well-known as author and poet, has been secured as head of the English department at the University of Minnesota.

The University of Maine's new library building, the gift of Andrew Carnegie, is rapidly nearing completion.

In the last four years Swarthmore's endowment has been raised from $400,000 to over $1,000,000.

The Pennsylvania basket-ball team defeated Princeton last Thursday by a score of 33 to 16.

Attendance at lectures is not compulsory in Germany, and there are all sorts of yarns about the student's idleness. They say that a young man in Heidelberg once approached another young man and asked:

"Where are the University buildings?"

The young man replied:

"I really don't know. I am a student here myself."

The Zelo Society, of Pennsylvania, defeated the Barnard Association, of Columbia University, in debating last week. Pennsylvania supported the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, That the Constitution should be so amended as to vest in Congress the power to impose a general income tax."

Phi Chi Convention.

The eleventh annual convention of the Phi Chi (Medical) Fraternity Convention met in New Orleans on January 1, 2, and 3, 1907. The sessions of the convention were held at the new St. Charles Hotel.

Dr. Arthur N. Tasker, U. S. Army, and William A. Boyd were representatives from Phi Chapter of our University. Dr. Tasker in the absence of the Grand Presiding Senior, Dr. Knapp, filled that office with much credit.

True Southern hospitality was shown the visiting delegates by Omicron Chapter at Tulane University, who were the hosts of the occasion. In addition to the sessions of the convention the delegates enjoyed a complimentary smoker, a theater party, a trolley ride over the city, a special clinic at Charity Hospital by Dr. Matas, Professor of Surgery at Tulane Medical Department, and a banquet with covers for sixty was held at the new St. Charles.

Representatives from about 20 colleges were in attendance.

The next convention will be held in Baltimore, January 1, 2, and 3, 1908.

Richmond Indoor Meet.

The managers of the field and track teams of the local colleges and schools have received invitations to be represented at the indoor meet in Richmond, January 26th.

Among the schools expected to take part in the different events will be Georgetown, George Washington, University of Maryland, Western Maryland College, University of Pennsylvania, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, University of Virginia, Randolph-Macon, William and Mary, Washington and Lee, Hampden-Sidney, Woodberry Forest, Episcopal High School, and the Washington High Schools.

The programme follows:

Scratch events, open to all—Fifty-yard dash (novice), 50-yard dash, 50-yard hurdles, 440-yard dash, half-mile run, mile run, pole vaulting, putting 16-pound shot, running high jump, three-legged race.

School events—Fifty-yard dash, 440-yard dash, running high jump.

Prizes for these events will be the same as last year—a gold watch to the winner, silver medal to the second, bronze medal to the third.

Classical Club.

The Classical Club held a regular meeting Friday night, January 11th in University Hall. The meeting was well attended and was one of the most successful held so far this year. It took the form of an interesting illustrated lecture on Sicily, its Greek and Roman Ruins by Dr. Arthur S. Cooley. The friends of the club were invited and the University Hall well filled with guests, as well as club members.

For the Honor System.

Since the recent articles in THE HATCHET on the subject of the honor system, urging that there be some action taken toward uniting all the departments in some definite concerted line of controlling matters connected with it, the Editor has been approached by two students who said that there is a strong sentiment in their classes for making the honor system stand for something more positive and definite than it does at present, but that they could not settle upon any way of arriving at a satisfactory plan of reaching the heart of the matter. The crying need of some action has been impressed upon them by the conditions that exist in their classes, conditions which they can not conscientiously allow to continue.

If all who are interested in this matter will drop their names in THE HATCHET boxes or send to the Editor, with a statement that they wish to co-operate with others to bring about an improvement, the Editor will arrange for a time when all can get together and discuss the matter. In view of the approaching examinations, this should be done at once.

Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

The Intercollegiate Athletic Association of the United States held its annual convention in New York on the last Saturday in December. There were twenty-eight official delegates present.

Several important features of intercollegiate athletics were discussed, and the football rules committee was elected.

The only change from the 1906 association seven is that Prof. Dudley, of Vanderbilt, takes the place of F. H. Curtiss.

All the members of the committee are opposed to any radical changes in the present rules. The following officers were elected:

President, Capt. Palmer E. Pierce, United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.; vice-president, Harry L. Williams, Minnesota; secretary-treasurer, Prof. Louis Bevier, Jr., Rutgers College; executive committee, New England States, Prof. H. D. Wild, Williams College; Middle States and Maryland, Capt. P. E. Pierce, United States Military Academy; Southern States, Prof. W. L. Dudley, Vanderbilt University; Middle West, Dr. C. W. St. John, Oberlin College; Northwest, H. L. Williams, University of Minnesota; Western States, Dr. W. C. Hetherington, University of Missouri.

No selection was made for the Pacific Coast district, there being no members from those States.

May Abolish Carlisle.

Carlisle Institute, which was established at Carlisle, Penn., in 1879, for the higher education of the Indian, is in danger of being abolished. The sub-committee of the Senate committee on Indian affairs has agreed to report an amendment striking out the appropriation for this school. The reason advanced by the members of the committee is that a school so far away from Indian reservations is not so effective as the western educational institutions for the Indians.

College Songs.

THE HATCHET has received a copy of "The Most Popular College Songs," edited by Hinds, Noble & Eldridge, N. Y. City. This little volume contains about 125 songs, words and music, and will be of value to any one interested in glee club work.

Dental.

The members of the Junior Class are having their troubles with German Silver these days.

Much mirth was occasioned during Dr. Lewis' lecture on vulcanite last Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Vivian interrupted the Doctor to ask if the dentist didn't charge $10 more for a plate manufactured of imported vulcanite rubber. The doctor took occasion at this point, to instruct the student in the ethical side of fee charging. He stated that a dentist should never charge a fee for the quality of the material that he used, but for the services rendered, and that a perfect understanding as to fees should be had with the patient before any work was done; that from the moment the practitioner took an impression of the mouth, he should do the very best work possible for the patient, regardless of the fee he is to receive for it. Some one then remarked in sotto voice: "He has reference to advertising dentists, doctor." Dr. Lewis heard the remark, and made the statement that he hoped sincerely that none of the students present would degenerate so far in their profession as to advertise. The Doctor's good wishes were heartily applauded by the class.

The pleased expression on the faces of the students of both the senior and junior classes after they turned in their papers to Dr. Carroll on the examination in Bacteriology Thursday night was good evidence that the examination was a fair one and that the boys were all pleased with the result. Apropos of the examination in Bacteriology, Dr. Lewis mentioned last Saturday to the class "That a little bird had whispered to him that the examination papers were the best the school had ever received from the dental students on this subject."

Cornell has adopted the Alumni coaching system for football next year. The field committee is composed of the captain of the football team and two alumni or former students, wearers of the football "C," which will have complete charge and control of the coaching of the team.

Dr. R. S. Bassler, assistant professor in Geology and Mineralogy, has written several bulletins on fossils and cement resources of Virginia. These articles are very interesting, especially from a scientific view. The study of fossils in this country has developed several new facts, such as the location of faults, mines, etc. The influence of these discoveries on the development of the welfare of the population of this country can not be expressed.

Dr. Bassler won his first degree, B. A., from the University of Cincinnati in 1902. The following year he received his M. S. degree. In 1905, he won for himself the degree of Ph. D., from this University.

Graduate Studies.

Mr. George William Hoover, who won his M. S. Degree last year, has started his work for his M. D. He proved himself to be an efficient scholar last year, writing one of the finest theses ever handed in to the Board of Graduate Studies.

Mr. Hoover graduated in 1903 from the Oklahoma Agricultural College where he received a B. S. Degree. After his graduation he accepted a position in the Drug Laboratory of the Bureau of Chemistry, where he is at present, causing many druggists to think hard of him.

Dartmouth had 1,019 students last year, 16 fraternities and 579 fraternity men. Lehigh had 656 students, 19 fraternities and 271 fraternity men.

The young women of Willamette University will meet the young women of McMinnville College in McMinnville chapel on March 1. In this debate Willamette will uphold the affirmative side of the proposition, "Resolved, that the municipalities (of the U. S.) should own and control their systems of street railways, electric light and power plants."

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Lew Fields in "About Town."

"Spontaneous laughter is nature's language," and this is the axiom of Lew Fields and his all-star company, which will present the musical comedy, "About Town," at the Belasco Theater next week. "About Town" is merely what it is claimed to be, a musical absurdity, but it serves to introduce to the public the cleverest band of funmakers that has ever been gathered together in a production of like class.

Otis Skinner in "The Duel."

Otis Skinner's engagement here next week at the Columbia can not fail to excite general interest among the theatergoing population. He returns with the same play, "The Duel," which Washington critics last season declared to be the most powerful and engrossing French drama of modern times. It is the work of Henri Lavedan, a leading playwright of Paris.

"The Futurity Winner."

Chase's will offer "The Futurity Winner" as its star feature next week. This is the mammoth sensational and spectacular racing production, with thoroughbred racers and genuine jockeys furnishing scenes and incidents that reproduce the life of the paddock and stable, and having a plot and players contributing intensely thrilling action woven around the racing elements.

"A Message From Mars."

An interesting and important attractions comes to the Majestic Theater next week, when "A Message from Mars" will be presented for the first time at popular prices. This three-act play by Richard Ganthony was used as a starring vehicle by Charles Hawtrey, the famous English actor, and it ran for over 500 nights in London, and for over 300 nights in New York.

"Secrets of the Police."

At the Academy for the week of January 21 "Secrets of the Police," one of A. H. Wood's best productions will have its first local appearance, and from present prospects should be one of the most successful engagements of the season.

Grace George in "Clothes."

Grace George in her new hit, "Clothes," comes to the New National next week. This is one of the most important and most interesting attractions booked for the season, and Miss George is certain in this play to strengthen her hold on the affection of local theatergoers. She is well and pleasantly remembered for her hit in Pretty Peggy in "The Marriage of William Ashe."

Medical.

Dr. Shephard Ivory Franz, the newly elected Professor of Physiology, has taken up his duties at the Medical School. We feel sure from his past record that the course in physiology this year will be a brilliant success.

Dr. A. N. Tasker, '06, Contract Surgeon U. S. Army and William A. Boyd, '07, represented the Phi Chi Fraternity of the University at the Annual Convention held at New Orleans this year. The fraternity notes will give you more news about it.

Assistant Surgeon P. E. Garrison, '05, U. S. N., was recently selected as Zoologist in the division of Zoology, Bureau of Science at Manila, Philippine Islands.

Dr. Garison was given the preference among a great many people of ability because of the particular aptitude he has shown for the work while in the Zoological division Hygienic Laboratory of Public Health and Marine Hospital Service. His record in the University shows him a member of the football team, the "Mall" board and President of the Athletic Association, 1904-05.

Mr. Burkett, what is a sty?

THIRD YEAR MEDICAL.

Mr. Orra E. Patterson was recently initiated into the Phi Chi Fraternity.

Frank J. Brown and family entertained Messrs. A. J. Wheeler and C. S. Lawrence at their home on T Street last Friday evening. The Brown youngster furnished most of the amusement but the boys managed to run over a little "Spractice" during the irregular intervals.

Mr. C. S. Lawrence, the well known obstetrician of the Junior Class, attended a case of anterior rotation of the occiput in Snow's Row, Foggy Bottom, last Tuesday evening. Two tardy assistants arrived after it was all over although a mad dash was made through the rain in response to hurry-up orders over the phone.

Dr. R. D. Wolfe recommends the alum douche for Laryngitis. Rather long distance treatment, but he says it is very effective.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. Ernest Day Everett, Freshman ('08 Class), editor of the Mall, to Miss Elizabeth L. Gaither, of Washington, D. C., at Leesburg, Va., on December 22, 1906. Mr. and Mrs. Everett will reside at No. 23 Q Street, N. W., and will be "at home" after January 24th. Members of the class unite in extending congratulations to this charming couple.

Members of the class will be pleased to learn that Mrs. G. Griffith, mother of Mr. T. E. Griffith, '08, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is much improved.

Mr. Thomas A. Scott, who graduated from the Law School several years ago, has severed his connection with the office of Law, U. S. Forestry Service, and is now engaged in the general practice of law in Spokane, Washington, with offices at 515, The Rookery.

Proposed Eligibility Rules For Scholastic Athletics.

An unofficial/circular letter has been sent out by the Athletic Association by the preparatory schools proposing a new set of eligibility rules to govern interscholastic athletics, especially the relay races. Criticism has been invited on the following proposed rules:

1. All representatives must be amateurs.

2. All representatives must be regularly matriculated in the school on or before October 15th of the school year, and must be bona-fide students taking at least fifteen recitations per week.

3. Kindly express your preference for a. or b.; a. All representatives must on the day of the competition be under twenty-one years of age. b. All representatives must on the day of the competition be under twenty years of age.

4. Each representative must be a bona-fide student in the school for one calendar year before he is eligible to compete for said school.

Exchanges.

The provisional football schedule of Pennsylvania calls for twelve games. There are seven hard games on the schedule, these being with Swarthmore, Brown, Lafayette, Indians, Chicago, Michigan and Cornell.

The Chicago game has not been decided on. This game must first wait until the Western Intercollegiate Conference Association decides whether it will permit seven games a year or limit the colleges to five, as in 1906. If Chicago is allowed seven games this contest will be arranged, but if the Westerners are limited to only five, Coach Stagg says his team cannot come East. If Chicago is played the game will be on November 9th. If this game is not arranged, Pennsylvania will play State on that date.

Harvard defeated Cornell at basket-ball Saturday by a score of 30 to 11.

Modifications in the athletics of Middle Western colleges composing the intercollegiate conference were defeated at a special session of the conference, at which representatives from all the "big nine" schools were present.

This action means that Middle Western college athletics will remain as they were last year, except that football practice shall begin at all schools on September 20. The proposed new rules, which were defeated, are extension of the football playing schedule from five to seven games; retroaction of the three-year eligibility rule to be eliminated; three-year rule and other rules or participation to apply only to football, baseball, and track meets.

Ex-Dean Henry St. George Tucker, now President of the Jamestown Exposition, is proving to be an enthusiastic promoter of aquatic sports and intends to make the outdoor championships, scheduled to take place in connection with the exposition thoroughly international. A few days ago it became known that he had succeeded in securing from England two great long-distance swimmers and plungers, J. A. Jarvis and W. J. Taylor, and it is now announced that Germany has expressed her intention of sending a full team to represent her. The Germans spoken of as most likely to take the trip are Emil Rausch, who won both the half mile and mile swims at the Olympic games of 1904 in St. Louis; Hoffman, a former fancy diving champion of the world, and Walter Brock, one of the fastest breast stroke and back stroke swimmers in Europe.

The University of Virginia announces that she is to have three inter-collegiate oratorical contests this year the "Central" at Chicago, the "State" at Roanoke and the "Southern" probably at the University of Georgia.

According to the annual statement of G. R. Parkin, secretary of the Rhodes Trust, there are more students from the United States at Oxford under the Rhodes Scholarship than any other nation. Of the 161 Rhodes scholars in residence at Oxford, 79 are from the United States, 71 from the British Colonies and 11 from Germany.

President Eliot, in his report to the Harvard overseers, expressed a desire for further pruning of the college's athletic programme, and pronounced himself in favor of a smaller list of big football contests.

Whether the adoption of his ideas as to pruning the list of games would result in cutting off the Yale game or the games with Brown, Dartmouth, West Point, or the Carlisle Indians, is uncertain, but it is probable that if his ideas prevail some one or more of these contests will be done away with.

The total registration at Cornell this year is 4,322. Twenty-nine countries are represented and forty-six States and Territories.

The question for debate between Ohio State and the Cincinnati Law School will be: "Resolved, That it should be the policy of the United States ultimately to annex Cuba." Columbus gets the choice of sides. The debate will probably be held in Cincinnati.

News of the College World.

Dr. John O'Connor, Dartmouth, '02, is expected to take the place of Frederick C. Folsom, who resigned as football coach at Dartmouth.

Latest developments in the dismissal of seventy-four cadets of the Sophomore class at the Virginia Military Institute are to the effect that some will appeal to the Board of Visitors, of the institution, at their annual meeting shortly, for reinstatement. The original order does not go into effect until after this meeting.

A Symposium on "Reform Football" to which Coach Yost, of Michigan, Walter Camp, of Yale, Dr. Raycroft, of Chicago, and Dan McGugin, of Vanderbilt, were contributors, appeared in the January issue of The World Today, and showed that each was heartily in favor of the rules, under which football was played during the past season.

Columbia lately defeated the University of Wisconsin at basketball 30 to 6.

The athletic council of the University of Cincinnati resigned in a body as a protest against the one year rule.

Harvard's athletic committee has forbidden the beginning of varsity or freshman baseball practice until six weeks later than usual.

The University of Pennsylvania declined Michigan's recent invitation for an indoor dual meet.

Secretary Parker, of the Rhodes Trust, reports that out of 161 Rhodes scholars at Oxford 79 are from the United States, 71 from British colonies, and 11 from Germany.

The University of Washington, in Seattle, has closed its doors on account of the coal famine, from which the city is suffering. It is not known at the University when classes will be resumed.

Chicago is counting on a game with Yale next year in case Harvard drops football, but they fear that Pennsylvania and Yale may get together instead. In case of such an arrangement falling through, Chicago hopes for a game with Pennsylvania herself.

At a track meet at the Imperial University, of Tokio, a Japanese student named Jujii recently broke the world's record for pole vaulting, clearing the bar at 12 feet, 9 inches.—Ex.

New York University has reached an enrollment of approximately 3,500. Syracuse has jumped to 3,200, 1,547 of whom are freshmen. Iowa will reach 2,300.
